Morning Request

July 7, 2023

Good Morning.

Good morning! How can I assist you today?

Are you familiar with the UEFI specification?

Yes, I'm familiar with the UEFI (Unified Extensible Firmware Interface) specification. UEFI is a modern firmware interface that has largely replaced the older BIOS (Basic Input/Output System) in newer computers. It provides an interface between the firmware and the operating system, enabling greater flexibility, security, and functionality during the boot process.
